

SITE PHOTOGRAPHS – RE FARM GEELKOP 456

The section below, provides a series of photographs taken on the Remaining Extent of Farm Geelkop 456. This section includes photographs taken by the EAP as well as relevant specialists where applicable.

LIST OF FIGURES:

Figure 1: UAV Imagery Showing Typical Imagery on Remaining Extent of Farm Geelkop 456 4
Figure 2: Bushmanland Arid Grassland in the study area. 5
Figure 3: Kalahari Karroid Shrubland in the study area with one of the rocky outcrops in the study area in the distance. 5
Figure 4: An ephemeral pan in the study area 6
Figure 5: Karroid Shrubland on Site 7
Figure 6: Vegetation in Minor Drainage Lines 7
Figure 7: Typical Habitat in Dry Stream Beds 8

Cape EAPrac

Figure 1: UAV Imagery Showing Typical Imagery on Remaining Extent of Farm Geelkop 456

Figure 2: Bushmanland Arid Grassland in the study area.

Figure 3: Kalahari Karroid Shrubland in the study area with one of the rocky outcrops in the study area in the distance.

Figure 4: An ephemeral pan in the study area

Figure 5: Karroid Shrubland on Site

Figure 6: Vegetation in Minor Drainage Lines

Figure 7: Typical Habitat in Dry Stream Beds